

GIFTS TO STAFF MEMBERS

No school board employee shall offer or accept any personal gift, favor, service, money or anything of proprietary or pecuniary value from the public or commercial organizations which might tend to influence such employee in the discharge of his/her official duties.

This regulation is not intended to abolish the exchange of gifts between employees for birthdays, Christmas, retirement events, or the offering or acceptance of social invitations, provided that such exchange or invitation is understood not to influence employees in the discharge of their official duties
